Principal’s Message:

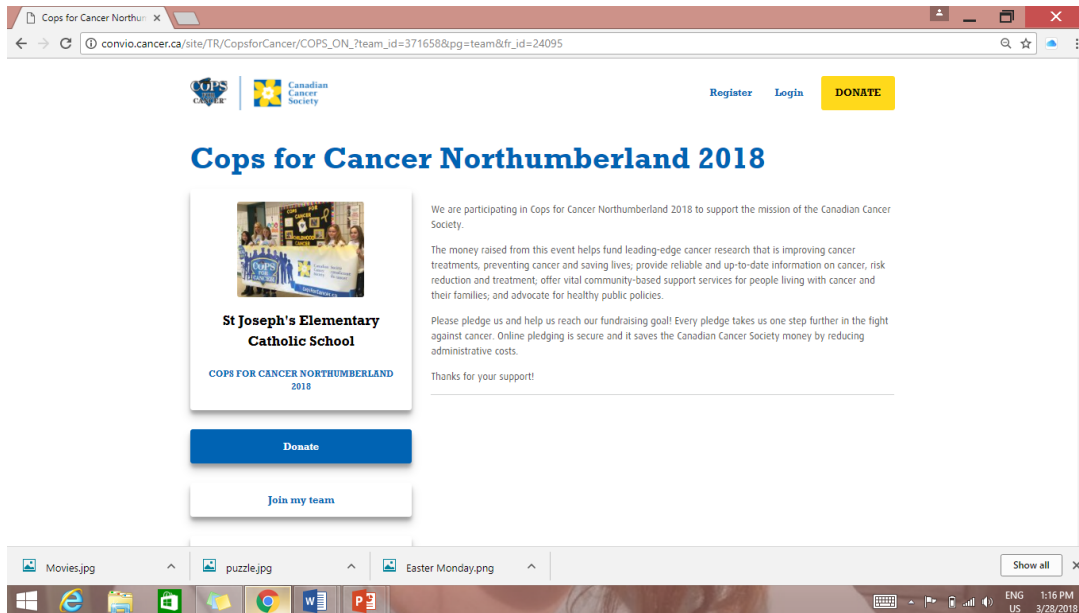

Hello Everyone,

Next week is a week based on service within our Community. On Tuesday we will celebration Autism Awareness Day. Our students in CASA have been busily providing us with awareness activities to prepare for this day. As a sign of unity, we ask everyone to wear Blue on Tuesday. Together, we will “Paint the School Blue for Autism!!!”

On Thursday, we will host Northumberland’s Cops for Cancer Fundraiser, here at the school. Students who would like to color their hair at home, or cut their ponytail or shave their heads at school, must have a permission form signed in order to participate. We will gather as a School Community on Thursday afternoon at 1:00 in the School Gym – all are welcome to attend.

A reminder that pledges can be made for our school team at:

As well, students who bring in $2 can purchase a piece of duct tape to help tape Mrs. Kendrick to the wall or $2 to purchase a cream pie to participate in the Pie Throwing Session with Mrs. Brodie! I can't wait to see how much fundraising we can do together!!!

On behalf of the staff and students of St. Joseph CES, we wish you all a wonderful and Blessed Easter Weekend!

Blessings,
Mrs. Brodie
